FROM THE PRINCIPAL

At our P & C meeting this week, I took time to outline some of the events occurring at Model Farms High School during Term 2 and would like to share these with a wider audience. Although only 9 weeks in length, Term 2 will be an exciting and vibrant time as indicated below.

- Half Yearly exams for all except Yr. 12
- NAPLAN (Years 7 and 9 - 13, 14, 15 May)
- MFHS Athletics Carnival (22 May)
- Wise lessons moving from "Wellbeing" to "Internet". This will encompass topics such as cyber bullying, cyber safety, digital citizenship and leaving a digital thumb print
- Primary Links program with Winston Hills Public School
- Year 10 and 11 Parent Teacher Night (17 June)
- FAME (24 and 25 June)

I encourage everyone to start entering these dates in your calendar, so that each event is well supported and gains most benefit to our students and the community.

P & C Trivia Night
I would also like to make special mention of the forthcoming P & C Trivia night, to be held at the school on Saturday 24 May. Please see an advertisement later in this newsletter for the full details. The MFHS P & C do a wonderful job supporting the school and this is one of their key fund raising events for the year. Not only does it raise money to support each and every student in the school, it is a great deal of fun. Please consider getting a group of friends together to form a table, and make it a chance to get together, have a laugh and maybe win a prize or 2 along the way.

The P & C team continue to seek donations from local organisations and businesses to make the night even more appealing and in some cases, rewarding. If you are able to donate an item that could be used as a prize in raffles or a hamper, please send these items to the school office on Friday 23rd May or contact Julie May on 0411 126 393 to arrange collection. All support is certainly welcome and appreciated.

Student Achievement
Congratulations to Emily Taylor in Year 11 who was successful in her audition for the musical Hairspray, being held at the Joan Sutherland Performing Arts Centre from May 9-17. This is a wonderful opportunity for Emily, in a well-recognised and fun production of a John Waters classic. There are still tickets available for anyone interested.

Change of Details
During the year, our contact information can change due to circumstances including moving home and using a new phone number. Personal circumstances can also change that may alter how you would like the school to publish your child’s name or photo in newsletters or other avenues of public communication. If you do change any details, including contact information, your child’s primary carer or your permission for MFHS to publish photos or names, please communicate this immediately to the school. We always endeavour to work together with each family in an educational partnership and this is one means of ensuring best practice continues.

Student Monitor Program
Each day, students in Year 8 work in pairs as office monitors. This allows information to get to students and staff members quickly, as well as providing the monitors with an insight into the organisation of the school on a daily basis. This is an invaluable program that has mutual benefits for the school and our Year 8 cohort, developing organisational, time management and communication skills. I look forward to continuing the work with our wonderful Year 8 students.

NAPLAN – A Skills Snapshot

If your child is in Year 3, 5, 7, or 9, they will sit NAPLAN tests on May 14-16 and despite what you may have heard there is no need to panic or start an intensive study program with your child. NAPLAN is very much “one test on one day”. As teachers, we do look at the valuable information this test gives us about the individual and collective strengths and weaknesses of our students’ learning. This information enables us to target interventions to remediate issues which are evident. It provides us with valuable feedback on the effectiveness of our teaching and learning strategies.

As a parent it is very easy to get caught up in using the results as “bragging rights”. They are not intended to be used purely as a test of what students know but rather a test of what they need to learn. The test is just one test of specific elements of learning conducted on one day. At times students get things wrong because they misunderstood, made a silly mistake or were overwhelmed by the whole experience.

Internet Use

Continuing on this Term’s theme of safe Internet use, the following is an extract from http://www.schoolatoz.nsw.edu.au/technology/cybersafety/computers-in-the-bedroom.

How kids have computers in their bedroom?
The internet has changed the way kids socialise. It's an amazing place that allows your child to make friends with another teen living on the other side of the world, and to discover differences and similarities. Just as you’d make some inquiries about new friends that appeared at your front door to spend time with your child, you'll also need to find out about the people they're meeting online. Of course, monitoring your child's online activities is easier said than done when your child has a computer in their bedroom, with internet access.

Shut the Door on Cyber Predators
Australian researchers have found children who don't include photographs of themselves or their email addresses in their social networking profiles are less likely to receive sexually suggestive messages.

But most kids like to have an image of themselves online – and avatars are a great solution. They're cartoon-like characters you can personalise and put on your profile. Better still, they're actually heaps of fun – and often free – to create.
Keeping Bullying Out Of The Bedroom
Education and child safety experts recommend your child does not use the internet in their bedroom.

Former Victorian police officer and cyber-safety consultant Susan McLean says the internet can give the bully direct access to your child's bedroom; "the one place that they should be safe". However, if for some reason the only place your child can study and access the computer is their bedroom, consider options such as:

- Leave the bedroom door open, with agreed random visits by parents
- Create a technology curfew. Disable the computer, and remove the mobile phone from the bedroom at a certain time each night.

Lack of sleep can be a nightmare
Another compelling reason to make your child's bedroom technology-free is to allow adequate rest.

Jennifer Hudson, a professor of psychology at Macquarie University, says teenagers in particular are prone to sleep problems, which will only be compounded if computers or phones rob them of vital sleep. "As soon as adolescents start to take an extra half-hour off their sleep to check their emails in bed, or just texting someone (and that's often happening throughout the night), that can lead to an accumulated sleep debt for the week," Dr Hudson says. "We know when kids don't get enough sleep that impacts on their mental health, their functioning at school and their relationships."

Setting cyber rules your child will keep
Dr Hudson suggests some strategies to help you make realistic rules your child can agree to and keep.
1. Keep the lines of communication open
2. Make it safe to tell
3. Decide together where and when technology can be used
4. Be consistent with rules
5. Get involved and stay in touch

I hope that these articles are providing valuable information for families.

Enjoy your week

In order to highlight the growing need for concern and awareness about autism, the month of April has been celebrated as the Autism Awareness Month.

Autism is a complex neurobiological disorder that typically lasts throughout a person’s lifetime. It is part of a group of disorders known as Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD). People with ASD have problems with social and communication skills. Many people with ASD also have unusual ways of learning, paying attention, or reacting to sensations. Around 1 in 100 individuals are diagnosed with autism and in most cases its causes are unknown.

At Model Farms High School, this was a special opportunity for all the students to learn about Autism. The lessons began with a youtube clip “My name is David” an animated short clip giving a voice to the young men and women with autism in schools. Students worked through booklets that took them through social situations involving people with autism and in turn led to interesting discussions and meaningful insights. Support for individuals with autism and a significant community understanding were the key messages for the day.

Light It Up Blue’ is a global campaign that sees thousands of iconic landmarks, cities and towns around the world turn blue on April 2 to recognise World Autism Awareness Day. The campaign highlights the pressing need for greater public education and awareness of autism in our community. The Sydney skyline lit up with a fabulous fireworks display to symbolise that the sky is the limit for all individuals on the autism spectrum!

NAPLAN
Years 7 and 9 are now preparing for their NAPLAN numeracy test on Thursday 15th May. Every Year 7 and Year 9 student will require a calculator for their NAPLAN numeracy test on 15th May. They must bring their own calculator and know how to use it. Below is a table showing the exam weeks for Mathematics for the Half Yearlies for Years 7 to 11. NAPLAN will be in week 3 of Term 2 for Years 7 and 9.

IMPORTANT NOTE: All Year 7 students must bring their own geometry set to their second exam on 29th May.

The Model Mathematician
The first round of ‘The Model Mathematician’ was held on Tuesday 6th May. It was great to see how the teams worked so well. I would like to thank all of our wonderful Year 9 helpers who did a great job of mentoring the primary school students. On to round 2 on 20th of May!

Calculators:
Please make sure that all students have their own calculator. The Casio fx-82AU is sold at the uniform shop for $35. Students need this calculator from Year 7. It is vital for their progress that students are familiar with their calculator and know how to use the different functions.

Free Maths Tuition:
Free Maths tuition is provided every Thursday afternoon after school from 3pm to 4pm. Years 7 to 10 are in room 8-07 and Years 11 and 12 in 8-06. It is fully supervised by the Mathematics Faculty.

Fun with Maths
On a full tank of petrol, a car can travel 560km. How far can it travel if the tank is only $\frac{5}{8}$ full?

Answer from last week: the archer could have reached this score in two ways:
Either by shooting one arrow into zone 15, another one into zone 5 and the last one into zone 7, so $15 + 5 + 7 = 27$
Or by shooting two arrows into zone 11 and one into zone 5: $11 + 11 + 5 = 27$

Taking away the Stigma!
On Wednesday 7th May 2014, some Year 10 students attended the inaugural Hills Young Healthy Minds Forum at Castle Hill Community Centre. MFHS was one of several schools from the area to participate in this forum which focused on addressing key issues surrounding mental health. The day was considered an overall success with activities ranging from listening to personal stories, a drumming session, an engaging Q&A panel, which included our own Madeline Seddon and students designing their own mental health campaigns to take back to school, Check out the comments from the students and visit Instagram Aussip # yhmf14 to view more photos from the day.

Year 10 Adviser

The forum was an enjoyable, interesting day. We are inspired to give a voice to the elephant in the room! Chloe, Rebekah, Sophie

I believe this forum was a great learning experience that I will keep with me for the rest of my life. It has removed a lot of the stigmas I had around issues of mental health. Lachlan

Great in depth presentation which was fun but also serious. Would love to do it again. Andrew

It was a great experience and I learnt a lot about mental illness. Something I will be able to take away and use for positive impacts at school and I hope I can pass on my knowledge to other students. Rachael.

A great opportunity for us to hear stories of people who have overcome depression and anxiety and also to think about practical ways to make a positive change in our school. Katrina

LOST PROPERTY FROM CAMP

We have loads and loads of lost property in the Front Office. If your child went to Camp this term and came home minus a sleeping bag, pillows, towels etc., then they are probably sitting right here waiting for the owner to come and collect them. None of these items have names on them which stresses the importance of naming your child’s items. Some of these items are very expensive and it’s a shame for them not to be claimed. All lost property will be given to charity at the end of Week 3 of Term 2. We would much prefer for the owners to come and collect them as these items cost a lot of money to replace.

LOST PROPERTY GENERAL

We also have tons of general lost property. We have dozens of house keys, sports uniforms and joggers. Please come to the front office and claim your possessions. Again, these items are expensive to replace and surely someone must be missing them. All lost property if not claimed will either be given to charity or disposed of at the end of Week 3 of Term 2. Please claim all property from the Front Office.
